

Under the Sea

Under the Sea, what a wonderful place to be under the sea, so much fun for you and me

Let's sing!

HAPPY
FEET
FITNESS

Who else lives under the Sea?

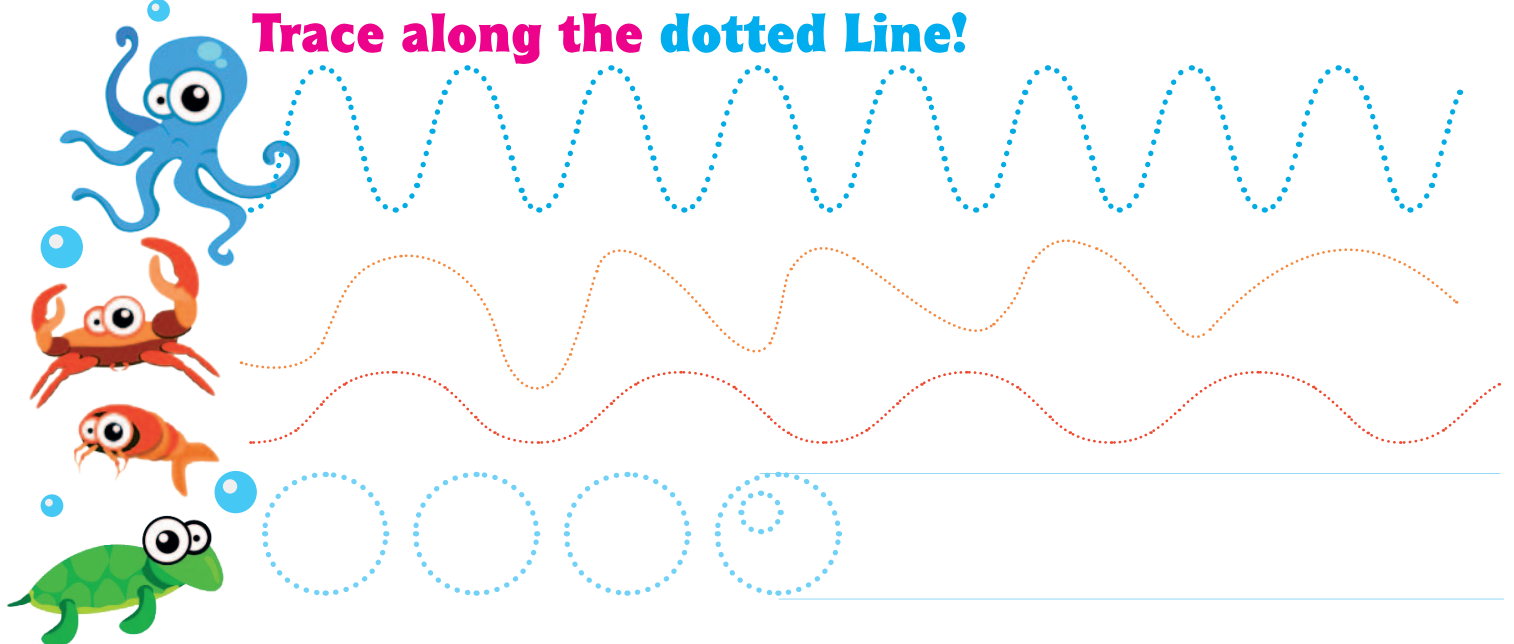

Fun Fact.

Draw your sea animals here.

The Blue Whale is the biggest animal to ever live.
A blue whale can grow to heavier than 50 elephants

Trace along the dotted Line!

Activity Suggestions! fun ways to learn about the sea

- # Decorate Shells with eyes etc to make them come alive
- # Invite the children to bring in their crazy crabs for a visit
- # Do your favourite under water animal impersonation
- # Shell collage
- # Listening to the ocean through a large shell
- # Make plate or cup jelly fish or Glitter starfish
- # Papier-mâché a coral reef and then add children art work fish to it
- # Ocean sensory tub with shell, pebbles, water and under water animals
- # Crab a crab habitat
- # Hang a net to display all the underwater animals made
- # Crab races
- # Invite children to bring in items from under the sea
- # Make hand print fish
- # Shell sorting and counting